Note of appreciation

We would like to thank all who support and help the "Computer Space" forum being held out on such a high, professional level. We want to thank all our sponsors and partners, as well as the extremely competent and objective jury, for their contribution to "Computer Space". Also thanks to all the participants and the audience of the forum.
We rely on you and look forward to your proposals, commentaries and recommendations. Do not hesitate to Contact us right away!